Rooted in timeless simplicity, the Here and There Collection reimagines the ‘Leopold bench,’ an archetype originated by renowned American conservationist, and founder of ecology, Aldo Leopold, for modern outdoor living. Developed with design studio Argenta Park, the collection transforms a familiar, functional form into a refined family of pieces including a bench, dining chair, and dining tables. Featuring enhanced contours for comfort, clean joinery, hidden fasteners, and Loll’s durable recycled materials, the result is a contemporary expression of Leopold’s legacy of environmental preservation built for how people gather today.
